DECLARES A POLICEMAN KILLED JOHN M'AULIFFE.

Member of Police Force Makes Statement in Advance of Coroner's Inquest - Several Suspects Are Held.

"John McAuliffe was shot by a policenan. It will be shown at the Coroner's inquest to-morrow."

A member of the police force, whose name is withheld for obvious reasons, made this statement to a Republic reporter at the Four Courts yesterday afternoon.

"I have also learned," said the officer, "that McAuliffe was not implicated in the St. Charles Hotel robbery, although certain persons claim that he was with Wright, the wounded robter, earlier in the evening. I am not at liberty to discuss the case any further, but you will see that it all will ome out at the Coroner's inquest."

The policeman who made the statement was not one of those sent out to investigate the killing of McAuliffe.

So far as the theories of the Fourth District Police and the detectives whom Chief of Detectives Desmond sent out to investigate the killing of the Deputy Constable to, he was killed by one of two men in a buggy with whom he was racing. Several suspects are under arrest at the Fourth District Station, and will be held for the inquest to-day. The police have nothing more than suspicion on which to

"John Egan, father of a saloonkeeper at Broadway and Carr street, I understand, has made a statement that he saw a policeman in the street where the shots came from. I believe he does not say positively that the policeman fired the shot."
As stated in The Republic yesterday morning, McAuliffe, who was a Deputy Constable, fell from a buggy at Broadway and Biddie street with a bullet wound in his head. He died on the sidewalk, without making a statement.

Becker denies this statement. He declares that he was in Herman Koener's saloon at No. 1500 North Seventh street at the time the shots were fired and that he ran to the scene in time to catch the horse. Koener corroborates this statement. Becker is still held by the police, but they are convinced that he did not do the shooting. The men in the other vehicle, with whom McAuliffe seemed to be racing, whipped up their horse, and in a mad gallop turned west on Carr street. William Barry, a market porter, was run over, but not zeriously hurt. Policemen Mantowski and Dumont attempted to stop the horse, but the driver turned at Sixth and Carr streets and evaded them. The policemen say they fired two shots in the air. The rig continued north and was crossing Cass avenus when the patrolmen saw it last.

The bullet which killed McAuliffe struck him just back of the left ear, passed through his brain, and lodged in the skull just above the right eye.

MUZZER'S "PAL" CONFESSES; TRIES TO SAVE WOMAN.

John Conway yesterday confessed to Chief of Detectives Desmond that he and Harry Muzzer, alias Lawler, robbed the homes of Thomas H. West, Amadee B. Cole, Duncan M, Kehlor and Isaac Meyer.

After being in Chief Desmond's "sweat box," which, in fact, is nothing more than an ordinary chair, two hours, Conway finally broke down and said: "I see it is no use to make any further denials, Chief, although it probably means years in the Penitentiary for us. You've got denials, Chief, although it probably means years in the Penitentiary for us. You've got us right. I'll rue the day I ever came to St. Louis. Chicago crooks told me you were tough on thieves. I'm more than convinced now that they spoke the truth.

"Muzzer and I robbed the four houses you have been inquiring about. We stole, the stuff. He wanted to get out of town with it, but I decided to stay. I'm sorry we didn't go."

Conway made a plea for mercy for the Anderson woman, who was arrested with him. He declared that she might have known that he was a burglar, but he said she could not help that.

At the homes of Thomas H. West. No. II Westmoreland place; Amadee B. Cole, No. 1705 Lindell boulevard; Issac Meyer, No. 473 Lindell boulevard; Issac Meyer, No. 473 Lindell boulevard; silverware, silvermounted toilet sets and other articles, the comblined value of which is estimated by Chief Desmond at about $1,000. The police have regained much of the property, and Conway has told where considerable of it was pawned.

Conway and Muzzer rented a safety-deposit box from the Missouri Trust Company in which to hide their plunder. The box was opened by Muzzer for the police Tuesday and was found to be empty. The burglars had intended to place stolen silverware and jewelry in it until they were ready to go back to Chicago. Much of the stolen property was found in Conway's trunk when he was arrested Tuesday night. "Conway and Muzzer are two of the best burglars I have had to deal with in years," said Chief Desmond last night. "I am glad to get their cases off my hands. In arresting them my men have done splendid work. Such crooks are a menace to any city, and to rid St. Louis of them is good work."

WRIGHT, THOUGH WOUNDED, SHOWS HE IS DESPERATE.

Joseph Wright, supposed to be one of the men who attempted to rob Clyde Osborne Dawson, the clerk of the St. Charles Hotel, early yesterday morning, displayed by his demeanor at the City Hospital yesterday

With slight chances for recovery from a bad wound in the left side, he lay on a cot and cursed detectives and policemen who attempted to get a statement from him.

"If I was able to get up I'd knock your head off." he said to Special Officer Andrew Gordon, the negro detective, who, it is believed, shot him.

All efforts to get him to talk about the robbery were futile. Clyde Dawson, the hrave young clerk who exchanged shots with the robbers, positively identified Wright as one of the robbers.

Special Officer Gordon dec.ared that he saw the three men run out of the hotel and that he kept Wright in sight all the time until he fell from the wound.

Wright has told the police that he is only I'y years old. His mother, who lives seven miles east of East St. Louis, visited him at the Clty Hospital yesterday. She said he is Il years old.

Special Officer Andrew Gordon believes he inflicted the wound which may cause Wright's death.

inflicted the wound which may cause Wright's death.

"I was at Sixteenth street and Washington avenue when I heard the shots in the hotel. The two men who ran out of the hotel went west. I followed them. Detectives Cremin and Murphy joined in the chase at Fifteenth street, I believe.

"I kad fired two shots. I saw one of the men shoot at Detective Cremin and saw him fall. I chased the other robber into Robbins lane. I found a man lying behind the billboard.

Special Omicer Cremin, who was shot in the billboard.

Special Officer Cremin, who was shot in the running battle, was taken to his home at No. 4213 Castleman avenue. His wound is slight. Special Officer P. J. Murphy, who was with Cremin, took the latter's pistol and pursued the robber, who had gained too much lead on him, however, and escaped.

At the City Hospital at midnight Wright was still living. Doctor Brown believes the prisoner will recover unless pneumonia sets im. The hospital superintendent declares that there is grave danger of pneumonia. If it can be warded off, however, his patient has a good chance to recover.

GOVERNOR'S DAY IN CAMP. Several Soldiers Overcome by Heat

During the Parade. REPUBLIC SPECIALA
Springfield, Ill., Aug. 20.—Governor's Day ceremonies at Camp Lincoln were not elab-orate this afternon, as the military ball and banquet features were eliminated from the programme by Colonel Flaher. Heading eight of his staff officers, Gov-ernor Yates entered the reservation at 3 o'clock and was greeted by the seventeen o'clock and was greeted by the seventeengun salute and escorted to regimental head-quarters by the First Battalion under arms. After an informal reception the review was held at 4 o'clock, three soldlers falling from the line because of the heat Governor and Mrs. Yates and the staff officers dined as guests of Colonel Fisher, but the repast had few extras from the State rations. The meal was considerable of a contrast from the elaborate spreads which other regiments this year have served to their Comammder-in-Chief, but Colonel Fisher is a strict disciplinarian and makes no provision for sociability in his camps. After the evening parade, a compilmentary concert was played in honor of Mrs. Yates by the De Kalb band.

More men have been incapacitated for drill this week because of stomach disorders than in any other week of the annual encampement. Red cross attaches attribute the increased sickness to the unseasonably cool weather, saying that men can better stand a change of food and water in extremely hot weather than in cool weather.

The blue full-dress uniforms of the regiment this week, have developed evidences of inferior workmanship, and many of the garmants will be condemned. This is the first faulty consignment of the blue uniforms, although the new khakis have given general disastisfaction.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR MAY CONTROL WEST ESTATE.

pective Litigation Over Prop-erty of Late Physician.

Public Administrator Garrard Strode not fied the Probate Clerk yesterday that he had taken charge of the estate of Doctor Washington West.

This means additional prospective litigation over the estate, which is said to be worth about $250,000. The law provides that the Public Administrator shall be entitled to administer upor estates of persons dying intestate, under certain circumstances.

The validity of the instrument filed as Doctor West's will has not been passed upon by the Probate Court. The signature has been marked over with lead pencil lines the back, stating that Edward W. Wolff. who was named executor, shall have nothing to do with the estate,

It is expected that Wolff will endeavor to have the will declared valid.

Should the courts declare the will void the question will arise as to who will be en-titled to take charge of the property, Doctor West having left three sisters, three nieces and a nephew.

The will in a short time will be sent to New York and Canada to be verified by the witnesses. Charles Van Studdiford, one of the witnesses, is in New York, and the other witnesse, is in New York, and the other witness, David Smith, is in Canada, A photograph of the will was taken in order to preserve a record of it, in the event of its being lost.

The fact that the Public Administrator has given notice that he has taken charge does ont place him in control of the estate at present. does ont place him in control of the estate at present.

His position is that he is entitled to act. He is not required to take out letters of administration on an estate, the same as other administrators. His official bond secures the legatees.

The will in controversy divides the bulk of the estate of Doctor West among his relatives and the Southern Presbyterian Church.
